

22.4. - 25.4.2020

2020

Internationales Strafprozessrechtssymposium

„Die globale Agonie des rechtsstaatlichen Strafverfahrens“
Deutschland, China und USA in der Reformdebatte

Prof. Jacqueline Hodgson

Jacqueline Hodgson is Deputy Pro Vice Chancellor for Research and Professor of Law. She established the Criminal Justice Centre and the cross-faculty Centre for Operational Police Research. She holds an LLB and PhD and has researched and written in the area of UK, French, comparative and European criminal justice. Her research has attracted funding from the ESRC, Nuffield Foundation, British Academy, Leverhulme Trust, AHRC, the European Commission and the Home Office.

She held a British Academy/Leverhulme Senior Research Fellowship for 2009-2010. She was awarded the Social Science Faculty Impact prize in 2013. In 2013 she was elected to the Council of JUSTICE and in 2014 she was elected as a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences.

She has contributed to UK policy reform through her research for the Royal Commission on Criminal Justice; her evidence to the House of Lords Select Committee on Europe; written and oral evidence to the Justice Select Committee review of the CCRC; and a briefing for the Scottish Criminal Justice review carried out by Lord Carloway.

At the EU level she has provided a Brussels Policy Briefing re the draft Directive on Access to legal counsel and been appointed as an expert for EU impact assessments on on legal aid Directive (2016), pre-trial detention (2015-16), presumption of innocence (2013) and the impact of Brexit (2018). Her research and scholarship on French criminal justice have resulted in her expertise being sought in the Special Immigration Appeals Commission, as well as in a number of European Arrest Warrant cases and Scottish and Canadian extradition cases. She has trained lawyers in connection with best practice in the provision of custodial legal advice in the light of European standards, and in making effective applications to the CCRC. She has also organised a range of public engagement events around prisoner well-being and women in prison.